Amazon.com: Blood and Masks (Neva Cora Book 1) eBook: Alex ... I really enjoyed Blood and Masks and felt it was well worth the $3 I paid for it. The basic story was interesting, but the cast of characters and the setting were the best part. Hilariously, the protagonist was probably my least favorite character. Provocative Art about Blood and Masks - hyperallergic.com Masks are everywhere in the show. They evoke Havel's focus on the duplicitous lives people adopted within the Communist socio-political sphere. Masking may also take place in present-day life. Amazon.com: Customer reviews: Blood and Masks (Neva Cora ... The first half of Blood and Masks suffers from the effects, but fortunately, it gets a lot better on the second half. Tl;dr: Great story, easy to read, and fun, but it's a thriller / fantasy mashup and suffers from some character and dialogue problems early on in the novel.

Blood and Masks (Neva Cora, #1) by Alex Ziebart Blood and Masks is a refreshing fantasy novel and quite possibly the only Urban Fantasy that stays in the High Fantasy setting. Never leaving the confines of the highly Roman-esque city of Neva Cora, it still sticks to the classic "Swords 'n' Sorcery" style and tropes, something unusual in the Urban Fantasy genre, and something I felt was refreshing. Are Women Using Their Menstrual Blood as Face Masks? Are Women Using Their Menstrual Blood as Face Masks? A viral Facebook post is no more than a hoax that plays off the blood-like appearance of a popular skincare product. Blood and Masks: Demon hunters in an elven metropolis ...
