Abel's Blood Cries Out - Life, Hope & Truth God uses figurative language to represent Abel's death: "The voice of your brother's blood cries out to Me." Obviously, Abel's blood was not literally "crying out" because the Bible teaches that the "dead know nothing" (Ecclesiastes 9:5). Jesus Christ identified Abel as the first of the righteous martyrs for God's way of life. Cry of Abel's Blood - Bible Odyssey The Cry of Abel's Blood by David Carr In Gen 1-3 God, man, woman, and a snake all have speaking roles; then in Gen 4 it is human blood that speaks, or cries out, from the ground. God, responding to Cain's evasion after murdering his brother Abel, says, "Your brother's blood is crying out to me from the ground.
